F. 49-40/2015/NCTE/N&S

24th February, 2016

To,

The Principal Secretary (Higher and Technical Education),
(Shri Mukesh Puri, IAS)
Education Department
Government of Gujarat
New Sachivalaya, Block No.5, 8th Floor,
Gandhi Nagar-382010
GUJARAT

Sub: Regulating growth of teacher education institutions

Sir,

Kindly refer to this Council's letter of even number 49-40/2015/NCTE/N&S dated 13th February, 2016 on the subject mentioned above. Input/comments of the State Government on the proposal of NCTE not to invite applications of the teacher education programmes specified therein for the year 2017-18 are yet to be received. Since, the NCTE is in the process of issuing public notice for the purpose, your comments on the NCTE's proposal are essentially required. Also in case NCTE wishes to exempt certain Regions/Districts from the purview of the proposed ban, comments with full factual details/data supporting the contention, are required by NCTE to formulate its views.

In view thereof, I would request you to issue suitable instructions to the concerned authorities to expedite the input/comments on the education programme, before 29th February, 2016.

Yours faithfully,

(Jugla Singh)
Member Secretary

need to be exempted from this restriction, they may submit their views for the consideration of NCTE, with actual data and other details about the region and availability of Teacher Education Institutions in the region.

5. You are, therefore, requested to substantiate the conclusion of the Council by further details as available in the State before the Council firms up its decision. In case no reply is received from your State before 25th February 2016, the Council will be constrained to proceed with its own conclusion and restrict inviting of applications for the above specified teacher education programmes in your State during 2017-18.

6. It may be clarified here that the input of the State Government at this stage will be treated as final and they may refrain from any blanket refusal at the time when their comments on individual applications are sought under NCTE Regulations 2014.

Yours faithfully,

(Juglal Singh)
Member Secretary
