LL.M.	1	Elective Course	1604020302010400	Concept and Development of Human Rights	6	30	70	-	Two Hours Thirty Minutes

MODULE – 3B: CONCEPT AND DEVELOPMENT OF HUMAN RIGHTS

(Elective Course)

Course Objectives:

- Protection of Human Rights (HR) became an important issue after the Second World War and after the acceptance of Universal Declaration of Human Rights.
- The growth of HR Law and jurisprudence thereafter was spontaneous and continuous.
- The changes in the global scenario bring new concept of HR protection against violation. In one sense, HR can be said as the rights which the nature has endowed with human beings. However, they are not mere privileges given to the subjects by the ruler but are liberties permitted to the 'citizens' in a democracy.
- Manifestly a law that violates human rights is no law at all. Probably this perspective may give an impression that human rights are not different from natural rights envisaged by the natural law school.
- Although Indian polity waited for more than one score and five years for adoption of Fundamental Duties in the Constitution, it is beyond doubt that every human being has responsibilities and obligation not only towards the other fellow beings, but also towards the society at large.
- Only when a society is aware of this right-duty relationship can there be any meaning to human rights.
- This course is intended to highlight the concept of human rights, their evolution and their importance in our society now particularly in the era of privatisation, globalisation and liberalisation.

Course Contents:

Unit - 1. Human Rights : Concept.

- 1.1. Human rights in Indian tradition : ancient, medieval and modern.
- 1.2. Human rights in western tradition.
- 1.3. Development of natural rights.
- 1.4. Human rights in international law national law.

PAPER – 4 : PRACTICAL EXAMINATION.

Course Objectives:

- Learning while doing
- Sensitize the students for research
- Sensitize the students for teaching
- Sensitize the students for social work

The practical examination shall be held at the end of the third semester on Research Methodology Law. Teaching and Clinical work. There shall be 25 Marks each for doctrinal research and for non doctrinal research and 25 marks each for law teaching and clinical work.

Course Contents:

Unit -1. Research Methodology.

i) Doctrinal research (25 marks).

Each student is assigned in advance a separate topic and asked to collect materials. A period of 5-7 days can be set apart for carrying out this assignment in the library. The materials indicated or collected during the assignment shall be evaluated by a team of faculty members.

ii) Non-doctrinal research (25 marks).

Here the students are asked to go out of the class room and library and make an empirical study of a problem which has social, economic, moral or political dimension. Field data can be collected through any model of data collection. The results are to be assessed by a team of faculty members.

Unit -2. Clinical work (25 marks).

The modalities can be evolved by the law school. One method is that the legal aid clinic of the law school can involve itself with other legal aid programmes in the area. Students are encouraged not only to work with the clinic but also to acquaint with court proceedings, working of a business organization, tackling of labour disputes, family disputes, drafting of business or other deeds and with public interest litigation. The initiative and potential of the student and the actual work turned out by him shall be assessed by a team of Faculty members.

Law Teaching (25 marks)

A topic is assigned to the student in advance. He is required to handle a class for 25 to 30 minutes. Where LL.B. programme co-exists with LL.M. programme, the students may be asked to teach the LL.B. students. They can select any of the methods of teaching. In legal education practical, the LL.M. students are evaluated by a team of Faculty members.

MODULE – 2B : PROTECTION AND ENFORCEMENT OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN INDIA

(Elective Course)

Course Objectives:

- A reading of fundamental rights and duties in the Constitution of India reveals that they constitute the human rights charter in India.
- The judiciary, the major protective and enforcement machinery, is very active in protecting human rights.
- Judicial activism in this field has added new dimensions to human rights jurisprudence.
- There are a number of cases where courts apply the provisions of the international conventions to fill the gaps in legislation.
- The apex court has also ventured to apply international convention even where there was no legislation in the area.
- Thus the judiciary has been directly implementing international conventions at the national level. This course aims at familiarising students with the judicial activism in protecting human rights and enables them to evaluate the adequacy of the methods of enforcement.

Course Contents:

Unit -1. History and Development of Human Rights in Indian Constitution.

- 1.1. Constitutional Philosophy Preamble.
- 1.2. Fundamental Rights.

LL.M.	3	Elective	1604020202030500	Privileged Class Deviance	6	30	70	-	Two Hours Thirty Minutes

MODULE -3A : PRIVILEGED CLASS DEVIANCE (Elective Course)

Course Objectives:

- This course focuses on the "Criminality of the "Privileged classes". The definition of "privileged classes" in a society like India should not pose major problem at all; the expression nearly includes weilders of all forms of state and social (including religious) power.
- Accordingly, the course focuses on the relation between privilege power and deviant behaviour.
- The traditional approaches which highlight "white-collar offences", "socio-economic offences" or "crimes of the powerful" deal mainly with the deviance of the economically resourceful.
- The dimension of deviance associated with bureaucracy, the new rich (nouveau riche), religious leaders and organizations, professional classes and the higher bourgeoisie are not fully captured here.

Course Contents:

Unit - 1. Introduction

1.1	Conceptions of white collar crimes
1.2	Indian approaches to socio-economic offences
1.3	Notions of privileged class deviance as providing a wider categorization of understanding Indian development.

MODULE – 2B : ENVIRONMENT AND INTERNATIONAL LEGAL ORDER

(Elective Course)

Course Objectives:

- Through the centuries of their growth, societies had done their best to keep their neighbourhood clean and health.
- Industrialisation brought in its wake unprecedented and unpredicted environmental hazards and upset the old ethos and equilibrium.
- The environmental consciousness is an offshoot of this saga of industrial growth. It is said that the world environmental consciousness had made a radical change in the character of international law from a moral code of ethics among nations to an almost positive law imposing on the states to observe environmental norms.
- Striking a significant note at the close of the last millennium, areas of international concern on environment are legion.
- Modes of reconciling the conflicts are also varied. The concept of sustainable development is a significant tool both at the international level and at the domestic system for reconciliation of environmental values and developmental needs.

MODULE – 3B : INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN LAW AND REFUGEE LAW

(Elective Course)

Course Objectives:

- The two world wars had had enough of lessons to teach. But the present scenario shows that the nations have not learnt any lesson : wars continue to be there.
- The International Humanitarian Law aims at humanising war though war itself is inhuman. Human rights do have value only in peace time. War is the negation of all human rights.
- Though the United Nations Charter does not permit war, it has shown the wisdom to regulate the war if one occurs. War is one of the factors which creates the problem of refugees.
- There have been some endeavours on the part of the international community to protect the interests of refugees. But due to political interference, the formulation of the definition of the term 'refugee' in the 'Convention relating to the status of refugees' has been such that it helps the developed countries to shirk the responsibility towards the refugees leaving the burden to the developing countries.
- This course intends to equip the students with the awareness of the various problems of refugees and to inspire them to critically evaluate the international conventions and national legislation.
